

Arrest, Detention and Special Education Advocacy for Juvenile Defenders

APPROVED
5 hrs
OF CLE CREDIT

February 19, 2018 | 9:00am to 3:00pm

Barbara Weitz Community Engagement Center on UNO's Campus - 6400 South,
University Drive North Omaha, NE 68182

Court is closed and free training is on! Join us this President's Day, February 19, 2018 for a specialized training for juvenile defense attorneys presented by Nebraska Youth Advocates.

FREE PARKING IS AVAILABLE ON CAMPUS AND LUNCH IS PROVIDED.

8:45 - 9:00 am	Registration
9:00 - 10:00 am	Arrest and Intake Juvenile defender will learn to protect and advocate on behalf of youth at pre-arrest, interrogation and detention intake phases of the juvenile justice system
10:00 - Noon	Challenging Probable Cause and Detention Juvenile defender will understand the importance of zealous advocacy at the detention hearing, including challenging probable cause, and will develop skills and strategies to challenge probable cause and advocate for alternatives to detention at every stage of the delinquency process.
Noon - 1:00 pm	Lunch provided
1:00 - 3:00 pm	Juvenile defender will explore the link between special education and delinquency and learn to use educational advocacy to produce better outcomes, consistent with the client's goals, in pending delinquency matters and to address educational needs that will reduce future referrals to the youth to juvenile court and detention.

PRESENTERS:

Lisa Geis, J.D., LL.M - Director of the Children's Defense Clinic at the University of Memphis Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law and former Supervising Attorney at Juvenile & Special Education Law Clinic at the University of the District of Columbia, David A. Clarke School of Law.

Joy Suder, J.D. - Suder Law, PC LLO and Staff Attorney at Nebraska Youth Advocates

Christine Henningsen, J.D. - Project Director at Nebraska Youth Advocates

REGISTER AT:

<http://nebraskayouthadvocates.org/events-and-training/115>

N E B R A S K A

YOUTH ADVOCATES